

GETTING AN OCCUPATIONAL LICENSE WITH PAST CONVICTIONS

New York State and City agencies license and provide clearance for 100+ occupations, including:

- Barbers
- Bus Drivers
- Childcare/Daycare Employees
- CNAs
- Cosmetologists
- Dental Hygienists
- Electricians
- EMTs
- Home Health Aides
- LPNs, NPs & RNs
- Massage Therapists
- Notaries
- Occupational or Physical Therapists
- Plumbers
- Radiology Techs
- Real Estate Brokers
- Security Guards
- Social Workers
- Taxi & App-based Drivers
- Teachers

1/3 of US adults live with an arrest or conviction record

1/4 of jobs require a license or clearance to practice

In New York, most agencies cannot automatically deny you an occupational license because of your past convictions. There are certain exceptions.

Contact the Legal Action Center for free legal services if you:

- Are applying for a NY employment license or clearance and have past convictions,
- Were denied a NY license or clearance because of your past convictions, or
- Had your NY license revoked because of your arrest or conviction record.

Don't wait for a denial!
Call for a consultation today!
(212) 243-1313